Borderlands: Managing Your College Identity

A Fall 2015 Student Workshop

Being a part of the college community gives us the opportunity to experience independence and discover who we are. This workshop is designed for non-documented or first generation students who would like to support one another by sharing their experiences and learning from others.

When & Where
September 15, 2015
12PM-2PM
@ El Centro de la Raza
(lunch is provided!)

What You’ll Learn:
- Define who you are and what is important to you
- Discover what brings you inspiration
- Tips on transitioning to college life
- Learn from your peers by listening to their experiences
